Held at Gallatin, Tennessee

Article I

Stated Meetings

Section 1. The stated meeting of the Lodge shall be held on the FIRST THURSDAY of each month and shall begin at 7:00 o'clock PM except as provided in 4.1102 of the code.

Article II

Officers and Election

Section 1. The officers of this Lodge shall consist of a Worshipful Master, Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Treasurer, Secretary, Senior Deacon, Junior Deacon, Senior Steward, Junior Steward, Tiler, Chaplin and five (5) Trustees. Other officers such as Historian, Marshall, Master of Ceremonies may be appointed by the Worshipful Master at will.

Section 2. Of said officers, the following shall be elected annually: Worshipful Master, Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Treasurer and Secretary and one Trustee to be elected for a five (5) year term (if any Trustee positions have been vacated during the present year, additional Trustees shall be elected to fill the unexpired term of said positions) and the others shall be appointed.

Section 3. At the election of officers, it shall be decided by vote of the Lodge, immediately prior to the election, whether nominations may be made from the floor.

Article III

Duties and Compensation of Officers

Section 1. The Treasurer shall pay out funds of the Lodge only on an order signed by the Worshipful Master and

Secretary, and (except as provided in Article V, Section 1, B) only after the same has had prior approval of the Lodge.

Section 2. The Secretary shall keep a correct record of all proceedings of the Lodge lawful to be written; preserve all papers and records and belongs to the Lodge; keep a separate ledger account of each member, showing the amount of dues he has paid, date of his birth when possible, and the date of his admission, initiation, passing, raising, restoration, withdrawal, suspension, expulsion, or death; keep the financial records of the Lodge in such manner and condition that they may be verified and audited at any time; and perform the duties generally expected of a Secretary.

Section 3. The primary duties of the Trustees will consist of the care and maintenance of all Lodge properties, landlord and tenant responsibilities, and all other duties as the Worshipful Master shall designate.

Section 4. The compensation, if there is any, of the Treasurer, Secretary and/or Tiler for services for the ensuing year, shall be fixed by the Lodge at the first stated meeting in December and prior to the annual election of officers.

Section 5. The Treasurer and Secretary shall not be required to furnish any bond, either personally or at the expense of the Lodge.

Article IV

Fees and Dues

Section 1. The fees for degrees shall be paid in advance for a total of Two Hundred Twenty-Five ($225.00). Rejected candidates will receive a refund in full. Any fees for the background check will be paid in advance and separately by the candidate and will be nonrefundable.

Section 2. No petition for the degrees shall be considered unless the fee accompanies it, and no degree shall be conferred until after the fee has been paid. No petition for advancement on certificate and waiver shall be conferred unless the fee for the next degree to be conferred upon the applicant accompanies it.

Section 3. Each member in good standing, not raised, admitted, or restored since the close of the Lodge's preceding fiscal year, shall pay annually, before the closure of each fiscal year their dues. Dues are based on a tiered system whereas members, 65 and under (age as of January 1 of the start of the year) will be One Hundred ($100) dollars. Members 66 and older (age as of January 1 of the start of the year) will be Eighty-Five ($85) dollars. The annual dues will automatically increase (to reflect our base dues amount plus increases) by the amount of any increases to the per-capita, as defined by Grand Lodge, in the previous fiscal year.

Section 4. Each member raised, admitted, or restored shall pay the Lodge, before the close of that fiscal year of the Lodge, a pro rata amount at the rate specified in section 3 of this article, as dues for the balance of that fiscal year.

Section 5. The fee for affiliation shall be a pro rata amount at the rate specified in section 3 of this article, which must accompany the application therefor.

Section 6. The Secretary shall read to the Lodge each year, at a stated meeting in August the names of those members whose dues for the Lodge's current fiscal year have not been paid or remitted; and charges shall be preferred against such members, in the manner prescribed by Grand Lodge law, not later than the first stated meeting in October.

Article V

Committees

Section 1. The Worshipful Master shall, as soon as possible after installation of officers each year, appoint and/or retain the following Standing Committees; of each of which a majority shall constitute a quorum:

B – A Charity Committee, consisting of three or more members of the Lodge, who shall have authority during recess of the Lodge to expend from the charity fund not more than five hundred ($500) dollars for that purpose. This committee shall at a minimum consist of the Junior Warden (chairman) Senior Warden and one appointed Past Master appointed by the Worshipful Master. Other members of this committee shall be appointed at will of the Worshipful Master. The confidentiality of the identities of the individuals helped by the Charity Committee will be left to the discretion of the Committee.

C – A Conduct Committee, consisting of three members of the Lodge, whose duty it shall be to take cognizance of the conduct of the brethren within the jurisdiction of the Lodge, reconcile differences which may arise among brethren, and when proper, prepare and prefer charges to the Lodge for its action and be responsible for the investigation of Entered Apprentices and Fellowcrafts who have not advanced to the next degree in less than 6 months.

D – A Visiting Committee, whose duty it shall be to visit sick and distressed brethren and their families and sick and distressed widows and orphans of deceased brethren, and report to the Worshipful Master of the Lodge.

E – An Inquisitorial or Interview

Committee, consisting of three or more members of the Lodge, whose duty it shall be to interview each prospective candidate from whom a petition for the degrees has been received and obtain from him such information relative to his motives and moral fitness as may appear advisable. No ballot on such petition shall be taken until after said committee has reported thereon.

F – A Budget Committee, consisting of three or more members of the Lodge, whose duty it shall be to present to the Lodge, at the stated meeting in December each year, a recommended Budget for the following fiscal year. This Budget will be reviewed by the incoming Worshipful Master for his consideration and recommendations and brought back to the Lodge at the following February stated meeting for Approval.

G – A Jurisprudence Committee, consisting of five or more members, whose duty it shall be to devise and recommend guidelines to the Worshipful Master, Officers, and Committees of the Lodge. These guidelines will be established by the Committee, consistent with the Bylaws of the Lodge and the Tennessee Masonic Code and approved by the Lodge. The guidelines will be reviewed each year, and any changes shall be brought before the Lodge for approval.

Article VI

Delinquency of Investigator

Section 1. Whenever a member to whom a petition has been referred to for investigation fails to report thereon at the proper time or to present a satisfactory explanation of his failure to do so, he shall be summarily discharged by the Worshipful Master, if necessary, and another appointed in his stead.

Article VII

Order of Business

Section 1. The following shall be the order of business at all stated meetings unless the Worshipful Master shall otherwise direct.

I – Disposing of such other business as may lawfully come before the Lodge.

J – Conferring degrees.

ARTICLE VI

Banking Policies

Section 1. Monthly Operations account.

The monthly operations account shall require only two (2) signatories: the Secretary and the Treasurer. External access to this account shall be limited exclusively to a debit card issued to the Secretary for the purpose of procuring supplies and materials necessary for Lodge Operations. No checks will be issued for this account nor any other forms of external access to funds.

Section 2. The Savings and Investment Account.

The savings and Investment account shall only require two (2) signatories: the Secretary and the Treasurer. No debit cards or checks are to be issued with this account nor any forms of external access to funds.

Section 3. The Charity Account

The charity account shall require only two (2) signatories: the Secretary and the Treasurer. There will be checks issued for this account and shall be held by the Treasurer for disbursement. To access funds from this account, the Charity Committee shall complete and submit a requisition form which must be signed by a minimum of 2 members of this committee to verify the legitimacy of the proposed charitable expenditure. Upon receipt and approval of the completed form the Treasurer shall issue a check in accordance with the requisition.

Section 4. The Knife and Fork Club Account

The knife and fork club account shall require three (3) signatories: the Chairman of the knife and fork club, the Secretary and the Treasurer. Two (2) debit cards shall be issued for this account: one (1) as a primary card issued to the Chairman of the Knife and fork club and one (1) issued as a backup card to be held in reserve by the Secretary. No checks shall be issued from this account. The funding of this account is made by donations during meetings and events. This account will be balanced out to Four Hundred dollars ($400) monthly after the stated meeting. Funds collected that balance the account above Four Hundred ($400) dollars will be donated to the Charity account. Should the account fall below Four Hundred ($400) dollars the Lodge will balance out via the general fund on a monthly basis.
